Man Suffers Critical Burns

An Appomattox County man is in critical condition with burns over 75 per cent of his body received when his clothes were ignited by gasoline used on a brush fire.

Joseph S. Watson, 21, of the Promised Land section of the county was first rushed to Lynchburg General - Marshall Lodge Hospital in Lynchburg at 6 p.m. Friday after the accident. He then was moved to the Medical College of Virginia burn center in Richmond by the Appomattox Rescue Squad.

A squad spokesman said that Watson, married and the father of an infant son, had been burning brush at his father's home on South Church Street in Appomattox when he decided to throw gas on the small blaze.

The flames flared back to the can of gas in his hand and set his clothes on fire, the squad member said.

NOTIFIED OF DEATH

Garage Offers Service

The Red House Garage, with E. C. Childress as operator offers complete automotive repair plus used car sales. Childress says that although the two-bay service area and garage structure was completed only a few months ago demand for repairs may very well call for an expansion and construction program soon. Childress is an experienced mechanic, a former employee of an Appomattox garage. He has two assistants, Frank James Hubbard and Eddie Peck. The garage is open six days a week for service on all makes of cars and trucks.

The garage is located next door to Ken Marston, grocer and is a joint operation with Marston.

Modernistic Club

by Hester Stevens

The Modernistic Club wishes to greet you in this new year, January 3, 1972. The club trust that you had a very "Merry Christmas," and that the "New Year" will bring much happiness, to one and all.

This letter comes to you from a cousin of mine, who has had a very successful time in Elementary, and High School Education through, determination and grit, after she was far past youth.

I hope this note will be of some encouragement, to the adults in Appomattox County who have started another year of work in Adult Education. Never think that you are too old to learn.

Mrs. Ada Stevens Jackson entered Project R,E.A.D, in the 5th grade in Northern Evening School in Detroit, Mich., 1956, at the age of 66. She gave as her desire to complete a high school education.

Mrs. Jackson's determination did not go unnoticed; because of her efforts, she excelled and was promoted to the 6th grade at the end of the fall term, 1966. In the Spring of 1967 she led her class in achievement, and was promoted to the 7th grade.

During 1967-68 school year, Mrs. Jackson continued an 8th grade climb and graduated from the 8th grade in June, 1968. She entered Northern High Evening School Sept., 1968, and a review of her grades revealed she had maintained a B-average.

Mr. L. Rice, Dept. Head, at Northern often talked to Mrs. Jackson, and in Sept., 1971, encouraged her to take (GED). Working together, Mrs. Jackson studied and prepared for the test, while Mrs. Jackson continued attending Evening School three nights a week, again showing tenacity, versatility, and fortitude. She was ready for her test on Sat., Nov. 13, 1971 and passed the test successfully.

Happiness is seeing the enthusiastic excited glow of a dream come true on the face of a determined 73 year old lady. Planning ahead she will enter Wayne County Community College in January 1972 to continue another step ahead.

Mrs. Jackson is an outstanding musician. She is well versed in piano and organ music. This training she received through Evening Classes.

She can teach music now if she so desires.

Subject: Entry for December Newsletter. From: LeRoy Rice, Head, Project R,E.A.D, Northern Evening School, Detroit, Mich. To: Mr. Pevton Hutchinson, A.B.E. Stevenson Building. Date: December 8, 1971. Mrs. Jackson is the daughter of the late Mr. Eugene Stevens, and is the neice of the late Mr. General and Mrs. Lucy Stevens of Appomattox, Va. Mrs. Jackson is a native of Appomattox, Va. We are very proud of Mrs. Jackson, and rejoice with her.
